Location & surrounding area:

Pretoria is the capital of South Africa and is situated in the northern province of Gauteng.

In Pretoria, the climate is subtropical; the sun shines on average 300 days a year.

Pretoria also has a lot of cultural attractions to offer: e.g. Church Square, which is the historic center of Pretoria. In the middle of the square you can find the statue of the former President Paul Kruger. Also there are many other historical and architectural attractions close to Church Square. For example, the Justice Palace, the Old Capitol Theatre, Ou Raadsaal (Old Parliament) and the Hoofposkantoor (General Post Office).

Pretoria also is known for its Hawaiian jacaranda trees that line many streets in the city. In spring mauve flowers shape the image of the city.
