Location & surrounding area:

Bellville is a city in South Africa and more precisely in the province of Western Cape. Today it became a part of the metropolitan area of Cape Town. At the very beginning the name of the town was 12 Mile Post because it is situated at 12 miles from the city center of Cape Town, Nevertheless, since 1861 the town is most known as Bellville. This name comes from the general Charles Bell.

Here you can find the Tyger shopping center in which you can find lots of recreation facilities but also different boutiques.
